DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings filed February 13, 2002 are objected to because the lines, numbers and letters are not uniformly thick and well defined. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Mauney et al.

Mauney et al discloses an inflatable

water sports board comprising

An upper panel 9;

a lower panel 10 substantially facing said upper panel, wherein said upper panel and said lower panel have a front portion and a rear portion as shown in figure 2, wherein said upper panel and said lower panel are substantially evenly curved from said front portion to said rear portion as is shown in figure 2;

a sidewall 18, wherein said upper panel, said lower panel and said sidewall enclose an air chamber 20;

a plurality of thread supports 15 between said upper panel and said lower panel throughout said air chamber 20;

said upper panel is flexible and has an upper panel perimeter;

said lower panel is flexible, has a lower panel perimeter, and is adjacent said upper panel as is shown in figure 2; said sidewall 18 has an upper lengthwise perimeter and a lower lengthwise perimeter, said upper lengthwise perimeter overlapping and adherent to said upper panel perimeter, said lower lengthwise perimeter overlapping and adherent to said lower panel perimeter as is shown in figure 2; and each of said plurality of thread supports 15 intersects an upper point of said upper panel and an adjacent lower point of said lower panel, wherein each of said plurality of thread supports has a length between said upper point and said lower point, wherein each said upper point is separated from each said lower point by a plurality of thread supports, wherein said upper panel and said lower panel are substantially rigidified by air pressure in said chamber being greater than air pressure outside said chamber.
